2005 NANUC Training Course NMR Boot Camp Early Registration Closes - June 24, 2005

Spots are still available for all days.

The early registration period is coming to a close. While spots are still available for all days many of the sessions are filling up quickly so please don't wait. Please download and fill out the registration PDF from our website (<http://www.nanuc.ca>) today. You can email (dparmar@nanuc.ca), fax (1-780-492-9174), or mail (2005 Training Course, Rm 101 NANUC Building, University of Alberta, Edmonton Alberta Canada, T5G2E1) the completed form. Late registration will still be available but at a much higher cost due to rush printing and reserved facility costs. For late registration costs please see the website.

A reminder that many hotels in the University and downtown areas are already booked solid due to the World Masters Games in Edmonton for the week preceding and during the training course. Please book your accommodations now.
